

Sydni Loudermilk

Huntersville & Boone, North Carolina

ASUBox 09821
Boone, NC 28608

loudermilks@appstate.edu
704-231-6245 (Mobile)

OBJECTIVE

While my ultimate goal is to be a talk radio host, my immediate objective is to get as much experience in the field of radio as I can, starting now in my freshman year. I am a responsible, reliable, and hard worker who loves helping and interacting with others. I will always bring a smile and joyful attitude to my work environment.

RELATED EXPERIENCE

90.5 WASU Boone DJ

Dan Vallie

Aug 2016 - Present

I began training at the college radio station in Boone in my first semester at Appalachian State. I learned how to use the computer system and the elements of speaking and going on air though live assist and keeping it in automation. Now I am a dj at 90.5 WASU.

Mass Communications Course

Dan Vallie

Aug 2016 - Oct 2016

Introduction course to the profession of radio and basis of how the world of radio operates.

Talk Radio Boot Camp

Don Anthony and Gabe Hobbs

March 9, 2017- March 10, 2017

Spent two days with top executives in talk radio and learned about the current state and future plans for the industry.

Theatre

Carey Kugler

Aug 2011 - June 2014

Performed lead and supporting roles in various plays such as Chicago and Almost Maine.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Nanny

Mr. & Mrs. Albert, Huntersville, NC

Nov 2014 – Present

Full time personal nanny for 3 boys ages; 4, 7, and 9. Transported from school to sports practices, made meals, tutored, and kept house tidy.

Hostess

Hawethornes Pizza, Huntersville, NC

Oct 2013 – Aug 2014

Welcomed guests, organized seating charts, served and bussed tables, and satisfied guest requests.

Travel

Thailand (Bangkok, Pang Na, Korat, and Chiang Rai)

April 2016 - June 2016

Performed mission work such as human trafficking outreach and English education.

Australia (Sunshine Coast, Queensland)

Jan 2016 - April 2016

Religious studies abroad.

EDUCATION

Appalachian State University

Electronic Media Broadcasting intended major for Bachelors degree.

